

ECO 498 – Undergraduate Research Proposal

Information and Instructions

IMPORTANT:
KEEP THESE INSTRUCTIONS
FOR YOUR REFERENCE.

ECO 498 – Undergraduate Research is intended to provide an opportunity for students to gain first-hand experience in research under the supervision of a faculty member.

To apply for ECO 498, a student must have minimum ‘B’ average in his or her Economics courses and have completed the following courses:

ECO 405 – Microeconomic Theory
ECO 407 – Macroeconomic Theory

The student must have a well formulated project and / or an outline of a research topic.

The student must also have a prior agreement with a particular faculty member who will supervise his or her research. The faculty member must also sign the student application.

A maximum of three (3) units from ECO 498 can be counted toward the major upper level electives.

ECO 498 cannot be counted toward electives for the minor.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

ECO 498 – Undergraduate Research is not to be confused with ECO 495 – Undergraduate Supervised Teaching (UTA) or ECO 499 – Independent Study.

These courses are not interchangeable.
