

Bachelor of Arts in Environmental Sustainability

Introductory Course: 1 course

EVS118 Introduction to Environmental and Sustainability Studies

Statistics: 1 course

GEO211 Univariate Statistics in Geography
PSY207 Psychological Statistics
SOC294 Basic Statistics for Social Sci
STA119 Statistical Methods

Social Sci/Humanities Core: 3 courses

Required: EVS250 Environmental Justice

And choose two more:

DMS201 Green Media
ECO208 Introduction to Env. Economics
END212 Urban and Env Planning
ENG263 Environmental Humanities
EVS 238 Science, Religion, and Nature
PHI234 Environmental Ethics
SOC341 Environment and Society

Natural Sciences Core: 4 courses

GEO101 Earth Systems Science, GEO106 Global Climate Change and GEO105 Earth, Environment and Climate Laboratory

OR

GLY101 Natural Hazards, GLY102 Climate Change and GLY105 Natural Hazards and Climate Change: Past, Present and Future Laboratory

AND

EVS315 Field Ecology

Environmental Internship: 1 course

EVS496 Environmental Internship

Electives: 6 courses

Electives provide a body of course work that will prepare a student for a defined area within the field of environmental sustainability. We call this “your jam”, and the electives you choose from below will develop this specialty. This is the pre-approved list but we will accept petitions in advance for individualized coursework within your chosen focus area. Please see the Environmental Sustainability Advisors for further information.

EVS317 Politics of Sustainability
EVS326 Great Lakes Ecology
EVS327 Sustainable Food and Agriculture
EVS330 Sustainability and Community
EVS345 Water and Society
EVS385 Energy, Environment and Society
EVS414 Globalization and Gender
EVS417 Sustainability and American Culture
EVS419 Wilderness
EVS424 Environmental Sustainability in Practice

EVS442 The Environmental Movement
EVS443 Business, Sustainability, and Society
EVS444 Community Resilience to Natural Disasters
EVS460 Leadership in Sustainability
EVS493 The Ecology of Unique Environments
EVS495 Undergraduate Student Teaching
EVS498 Independent Undergraduate Research
EVS499 Independent Study
SSC414 Grant Writing for Non-Profits

Credits for major: 47

Additional credits for UB curriculum: 32

Additional Electives: 41

Total credits for degree: 120