

Modification of CAS Bylaw Regarding APT passed by the Policy Committee April 30, 2018

By a unanimous vote of the CAS Policy Committee on April 30, 2018, the following article of the College of Arts & Sciences By Laws was modified:

Section VI, Article 2(c) now reads:

“The Committee’s procedures shall include: opportunity for the academic unit Chair to present and discuss the case of that unit’s candidate for initial appointment with continuing appointment or as Professor or to a Distinguished Professorship; ~~the right of a Committee member to participate in consideration of a candidate from the member’s unit~~ ...the right of a Committee member to participate in consideration of a candidate from the member’s unit, by voting only; the report of the Committee’s vote on and recommendations of each candidate to the Dean; and the presence of the Dean or the Dean’s designee at each meeting of the Committee as an observer.”