

UB Psi Chi Application

Psi Chi (pronounced “sigh - ka”) is the International Honor Society in Psychology. If you meet the membership criteria (see below), you are eligible to join UB’s Psi Chi Chapter. Membership is a lifetime honor. Your membership is preserved at the Psi Chi International Office and can be included on graduate school and employment applications. When you are inducted into Psi Chi, you will be presented with a frameable membership certificate, and you will be eligible to wear Psi Chi emblems including pins, charms, cords, etc. Psi Chi requires a one-time registration fee of $65.00.

Membership Criteria:

If you are a Psychology Major, the membership criteria are:

- 1) You must have a current status as a Psychology Major.
- 2) You must have completed the following psychology courses:
 - Introductory Psychology (PSY 101)
 - Psychological Statistics (PSY 207)
 - Scientific Inquiry (PSY 350)
- 3) You must have a psychology GPA of 3.4 or better and a cumulative GPA of 3.1 or better.

If you are a Psychology Minor, the membership criteria are:

- 1) You must have a current status as a Psychology Minor.
- 2) You must have completed 9 credits of the Psychology Minor.
- 3) You must have a psychology GPA of 3.4 or better and a cumulative GPA of 3.1 or better.

Application Process:

Psi Chi inducts members twice each year, once in fall and once in spring. To join, you must complete both applications and meet all eligibility requirements by the deadline.

Step 1: Complete the Psi Chi International Membership Application

Start your application through the Psi Chi International portal.

Select the University at Buffalo, The State University of NY chapter before submitting.

Step 2: Submit UB chapter materials

After completing the form below, submit it along with:

- An unofficial transcript or Academic Advisement Report, including any previous institutions
- A short paragraph describing what you hope Psi Chi will accomplish
- Payment of the $65 membership fee

Submit you UB Psi Chi Application through UB Marketplace.
