

ECO 495 – Undergraduate Supervised Teaching (UTA) Department Policy and Instructions

To be considered for a position as an ECO 495 UTA, you must satisfy the University and Department policy.

1. For ECO 181 or ECO 182, you must meet the requirements in either (a) or (b):

- (a) You must have taken both ECO 181 and ECO 182 (or their equivalents from other institutions), received at least an A- grade in the appropriate course for which you will assist, and have a GPA of 3.3 or higher overall and in Economics.
- (b) You must have received at least an A- in the appropriate upper-level course (ECO 405 Microeconomic Theory, or ECO 407 Macroeconomic Theory) and have a GPA of 3.3 or higher overall and in Economics.
- 2. For all other courses, you must meet the requirements in both (a) and (b):
  - (a) You must have received at least an A- grade in the course in which you will assist.
  - (b) You must have a GPA of 3.3 or higher overall and in Economics.
- 3. You must have at least 60 credit hours already completed.
- 4. You must have a recommendation letter from the supervising faculty member for whom you will serve as a UTA.
- 5. You must fill out the ECO 495 Application below and submit it to ecomain@buffalo.edu with the recommendation letter from the supervising faculty member and a current copy of your Academic Advisement Report.
- 6. To be considered, all paperwork must be received before the last day of each semester's Add/Drop period.

Information regarding Add/Drop deadlines may be found on the Registrar's website: https://registrar.buffalo.edu/registration/howtoregister/drop-add-resign.php

Note: For Economics BA degree students, a maximum of 3 credits from either ECO 495 or ECO 496 are allowed to count toward your any-level Economics elective requirements.

If your application is approved, you will be automatically force registered into ECO 495 for 3 credit hours and will see the update in your class schedule via your HUB student center. There is no need to fill out a separate force registration request form.
