

Jim and Matthew Scarpati Honorary Applied Economics Conference

Student Application

AY 2023-2024

Please complete the form below and return to this year's conference organizer:

Dr. Alex Anas, email: alexanas@buffalo.edu

Student Information:

Name (last, first): _____

Person #: _____ - _____ UB Email: _____

Current Major: _____ Current GPA (overall): ____.

Credits Completed: 0-30 30-60 60-90 90+

Economics Coursework:

List any economics courses you have taken (up to five):

Example Course Name and Number: Eco 181, Eco 182, Eco 380, etc.

Course Name and Number: _____ Semester: _____ Grade Earned: _____

Course Name and Number: _____ Semester: _____ Grade Earned: _____

Course Name and Number: _____ Semester: _____ Grade Earned: _____

Course Name and Number: _____ Semester: _____ Grade Earned: _____

Course Name and Number: _____ Semester: _____ Grade Earned: _____

Relevant Non-Economics Coursework:

List any non-economics courses taken that may be relevant for studying this year's topic (up to five):

Course Name and Number: _____ Semester: _____ Grade Earned: _____

Course Name and Number: _____ Semester: _____ Grade Earned: _____

Course Name and Number: _____ Semester: _____ Grade Earned: _____

Course Name and Number: _____ Semester: _____ Grade Earned: _____

Course Name and Number: _____ Semester: _____ Grade Earned: _____

This year's conference topic is The Economic Consequences of Traffic Congestion Pricing in Lower Manhattan. In a few sentences (do not exceed the space given), describe some aspects of the implementation of congestion pricing or the outcome of congestion pricing that you think are important and/or that you might focus on in your paper and presentation.

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____