

QUALIFYING PAPER FORM

Department of Political Science
State University of New York at Buffalo

Name of Student: _____

I attest that the student named above has written a research paper that meets the quality standards of the Qualifying Paper requirement for taking the Ph.D. comprehensive exams. The origin of this research paper is indicated below:

_____ written for my course: _____
[course number and title; semester taught] _____ conference or working paper that I have reviewed.

Faculty member: _____
Print Name Signature

In their decision, the oral committee for the Ph.D. comprehensive exam can consider the student's prospects for successfully completing the dissertation. For the purpose of advising the student's oral committee, which of the following best represents your assessment of the central ideas in the research paper:

_____ could serve as the basis for a dissertation.

_____ could serve as the basis for a dissertation after further development or in a revised form.

_____ are interesting and potentially publishable but not appropriate as the basis for a dissertation.