Academic Interests

I have two primary interests. One is a series of articles, culminating in a book on residential segregation and fair housing policy in the United States, 1960-present. Second is a book on constitutional change in Supreme Court civil rights and civil liberties decision-making, 1900-present. Fields: Public Law (constitutional law, civil liberties, and judicial politics); Public Policy (civil rights policy making, implementation, and enforcement); American Politics (presidency, bureaucracy, courts, Congress, federalism, urban and ethnic politics); Politics and History (especially since 1900).

Books

Race, Ethnicity, and Housing Segregation in America (co-author with Charles S. Bullock, III) (in preparation).
